

City Council and Morecambe also a controlled tip (nobody uses the rsh. The Corporation has already d proposes to raise its level nine provide space for the next seventeen g more land into use step by step.
Councillor Mrs Pickard is worried use prices. Grit, dirt and a noxious wards towards built-up areas and at academics would call 'the long alised areas tended to site their where the prevailing winds would d smells). Councillor T. S. Hayton ervations: it would be asking for explains, these points have already . The Town Clerk points out that mentioned in regard of tipping, Only four members vote in favour carried, and so a great space for ed ecosystem. Gulls, being great sh a huge colony, the landfill e (if putrescent) scraps, although rds might also be attracted to the y, and the opportunity for mass osite bank of the Lune, Salt Ayre

